

As part of our mission to promote transparency of pandemic spending, the PRAC will oversee the $900B in COVID-19 relief, in addition to CARES Act funds.

@COVID_Oversight
#InsightsNOW

$25B

HOUSING

Emergency assistance to renters
Extension of CDC moratorium on evictions

$82B

SCHOOLS

$54.3B for elementary and secondary education
$27.7B for higher education

$73B

HEALTH CARE

$55.3B for COVID-19 testing, vaccines, research
$10.3B to child care programs and providers
$4.3B for substance abuse and mental health
$3B for Provider Relief Fund

$7B

BROADBAND INTERNET

Increase connectivity in unserved communities

COVID-19 RELIEF FUNDING

$900B*

$166B

DIRECT PAYMENTS

$600 to individuals who make up to $75k annually
Additional $600 for each child dependent
$1,200 for couples earning up to $150k annually

$45B

TRANSPORTATION

$16B for airline payroll
$14B for transit
$10B for highways
$2B for buses
$2B for airports
$1B for Amtrak

$26B

FOOD & FARM

$13B added to Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program
$13B for agricultural programs

$120B

UNEMPLOYMENT

Extension of Pandemic Unemployment Assistance for self-employed workers
Extension of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation at $300 per week through March 14

$325B

SMALL BUSINESS

$284.5B to Paycheck Protection Program
$20B for Economic Injury Disaster Loans Advance program
$15B in grants for live venues
$3.5B for Debt Relief program
$1.9B for 7(a) loan programs and low-interest refinancing
$57M for Microloan program
$50M for PPP auditing and fraud mitigation

*Amounts shown comprise 96% of the total $900B included in the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021, enacted December 27, 2020